Report Card on Child and Family Poverty in Nova Scotia: Kids Can't Wait

18.4%

provincial child poverty rate hides that poverty rates are much higher for some children living in Nova Scotia:

21.3%

for children under six

29.5%

for racialized children

32.6%

for immigrant children

37.8%

for children of lone
mother-led families

43.6%

for Indigenous children living
on First Nations reserves

Kids can't wait!

Childhood is both too important and too short for anything other than bold actions and significant investments over a short period.
