

Contents

Tables and Figures xi

List of Acronyms xiii

Acknowledgments xix

Foreword xxi

Maude Barlow

PART ONE CONTEXT AND OVERVIEW I

- I Canada, Free Trade, and “Deep Integration” in North America:
Context, Problems, and Challenges 3

Ricardo Grinspun and Yasmine Shamsie

Economic integration: Dubious benefits, troubling prospects / 8; Costing free trade: Impacts on essential services and public policy / 12; Costing free trade: Impacts on the environment and natural resources / 15; September 11 and the deep integration agenda / 18; Unholy alliance: The coming together of trade and security / 23; Framing the debate: Integration, deeper integration, and even deeper integration / 29; Revitalizing democracy, upholding the public good / 32; Moving forward: Resisting assimilation, deepening democracy / 38; Notes / 44; References / 47

- 2 Free Trade Allies: The Making of a New Continentalism 54

Duncan Cameron

Politics, business, and the free trade agenda / 55; Continentalism: Old and new / 58; Canada and us hegemony / 64; Contesting the new continentalism / 67; Conclusion / 69; Notes / 70; References / 71

- 3 Corporate Canada: Washington's Empire Loyalists 74
Tony Clarke
 Strategic lessons / 76; Corporate restructuring / 80; Security paradigm / 85; Strategic bargain? / 88; Conclusion / 98; Notes / 100; References / 101
- PART TWO SEPTEMBER 11 AND THE DEEP INTEGRATION AGENDA 105
- 4 Paradigm Shift or Paradigm Twist? The Impact of the Bush Doctrine on Canada's International Position 107
Stephen Clarkson and Maria Banda
 Economic liberalization / 109; Prevention: National security at home / 110; Retribution and pre-emption: Military force for regime change / 115; Conclusion / 120; Notes / 125; References / 126
- 5 "Community of Law:" Proposals for a Strategic Deal with the United States 129
Stephen Clarkson and Maria Banda
 Context: The political and economic conjuncture since 1994 / 130; After the shock: Fall 2001 / 132; Proposals for a new continental architecture / 134; The big idea: Institutional dilemmas and political realities / 142; Towards the big idea in small instalments / 148; Conclusion / 150; Notes / 151; References / 151
- 6 Fortress North America: The Drive towards Military and Security Integration and Its Impact on Canadian Democratic Sovereignty 154
Steven Staples
 After September 11: A world map redrawn / 155; The assault on "human security" / 155; The Bush Doctrine and the next phase of globalization / 156; Corporate Canada rallies for a "big idea" / 159; Building Fortress North America / 161; The strategic alliance between the corporate and defence lobbies / 162; Background to Canada-US continental military cooperation / 164; New commands and the Bi-National Planning Group / 167; National Missile Defence / 170; Confronting the military-corporate lobby / 172; A reinvigorated movement is needed / 175; Notes / 176; References / 177

- 7 Risking Rights: An Assessment of Canadian Border Security Policies 180
Sharryn J. Aiken
Securing the nation with immigration law / 182; Border (in)security / 188; Racial profiling / 192; Conclusion / 200; Notes / 202; References / 203
- PART THREE FREE TRADE: ECONOMIC AND LABOUR IMPACTS 209
- 8 From Leaps of Faith to Hard Landings: Fifteen Years of “Free Trade” 211
Andrew Jackson
The great free trade debate / 212; Downward harmonization: Social dimensions of the integrated economic space / 221; Moving forward / 230; Afternote / 231; Notes / 232; References / 232
- 9 Critical Macroeconomic Aspects of Deepening North American Economic Integration 234
Mario Seccareccia
North American commercial integration: Some stylized facts / 236; Macroeconomic policies: The record / 241; Greater North American monetary integration? / 250; Conclusion / 252; Notes / 253; References / 256
- 10 All Pain, No Gain: Canadian Labour in the Integrated North American Economy 259
David Robinson
The lost decade: The labour market in the 1990s / 260; Explaining the great Canadian slump of the 1990s / 265; The impact of economic integration on labour standards / 272; Conclusion: Which way for labour? / 275; Notes / 276; References / 277
- 11 The Costs and Benefits of a Canada–US Customs Union 280
Marc Lee
Customs union and economic integration / 281; Eliminating rules of origin / 285; The downside of “common” trade policy / 287; US trade remedy laws, retaliation and harassment / 290; Assessing the bargain / 291; Notes / 293; References / 294

PART FOUR FREE TRADE: IMPACTS ON PUBLIC POLICY AND CULTURE 297

12 An International Bill of Rights for Foreign Investors 299

Steven Shrybman

The special case of foreign investment treaties / 299; A revolutionary expansion of investor rights / 300; Deploying investor rights / 302; Investor rights and public services / 304; P3s, privatization, and investor rights / 305; Contracting out of NAFTA? / 309; Investor rights in search of a rationale / 310; The uncertain future of foreign investor rights / 312; Human rights not corporate rights / 313; Notes / 313; References / 314

13 Impact of Trade Agreements on Subnational Governments 317

Kathy Corrigan

Trade agreements: CUFTA, NAFTA, WTO and AIT / 317; Education and privatization / 327; Trade agreements and municipalities / 333; What happens next? / 337; Notes / 339; References / 340

14 Trade Treaties, Privatization, and Health Care Reform in Canada 343

Jim Grieshaber-Otto, Scott Sinclair, and Ricardo Grinspun

Unsafe practices: Underfunding, commercialization, and decentralization / 344; Recent government reports on health care reform / 348; Hazardous mixture: Existing trade treaties and health care reform / 351; Looming challenges: New trade treaty negotiations / 358; Conclusion: Towards healthy health care reform / 364; Notes / 367; References / 368

15 Free Trade and Deep Integration in North America: Saving Canadian Culture 371

Garry Neil

The Canadian cultural dilemma / 372; Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement: The sell-out begins / 375; Pressure on Canadian cultural policies continues / 379; Erosion of foreign ownership limits / 383; Defending against cultural assimilation / 385; Convention on cultural diversity / 386; Notes / 388; References / 389

16 Free Trade and Quebec Models of Development 391

Dorval Brunelle and Benoît Lévesque

The Quiet Revolution / 391; Free trade in context / 394; The emergence of a second-generation development model / 395; Conclusion / 400; Notes / 402; References / 404

PART FIVE DEEP INTEGRATION: IMPACTS ON ENVIRONMENT, ENERGY, AND PATENT LAW 407

- 17 Breaking the Free Trade Addiction: An Intervention on Environmental Grounds 409
Elizabeth May and Sarah Dover
- What we are losing: The state of Canada's environment / 411;
Who knew? Looking back on the establishment of NAFTA / 414;
On the sideline: NAFTA's environmental institutions / 417; The failure of strategic environmental assessment of trade agreements / 419; NAFTA and the (in)ability to respond to the environmental crisis / 421; NAFTA, climate change, and the appetite for oil / 424; Taking bad to worse: "The big, stupid idea" / 430;
Conclusion / 433; Notes / 434; References / 435
- 18 Imperialist Regulation: US Electricity Market Designs and Their Problems for Canada and Mexico 439
Marjorie Griffin Cohen
- The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) / 440;
Regional Transmission Organizations (RTOs) / 442; Creating larger markets / 446; The electricity debate in Mexico / 448;
Canada's regulatory system / 450; Conclusion / 453; Notes /
454; References / 456
- 19 Pipelines and Pipe Dreams: Energy and Continental
Security 459
Larry Pratt
- A match made in heaven / 462; Deregulation, NAFTA, and the promotion of exports / 466; Corporate strategies: Pressures to export / 470; Limits to integration / 473; Conclusion / 477;
Notes / 478; References / 479
- 20 Of Harvard Mice and Prairie Farmers: Canadian Patents on Life 481
Michelle Swenarchuk
- What is a patent? / 482; The life patents debate / 483; Life
patent reform proposals / 493; Conclusion / 495; References / 496

PART SIX THE WAY FORWARD: BUILDING A MOVEMENT, DEVELOPING ALTERNATIVES 499

21 Challenging the Forces of Deep Integration 501

Murray Dobbin

The facts on the ground: The materialist and political reality of assimilation / 503; The record of the left in challenging the right's hegemony / 505; The right's hegemonic campaigns / 507; Fighting deep integration as a counter-hegemonic struggle / 512; The left's organizational dilemma / 517; The struggle against deep integration: The Americanization of Canada / 519; Notes / 526; References / 527

22 Managing Canada-US Relations: An Alternative to Deep
Integration 529

Bruce Campbell

Living with NAFTA: Constraints on policy freedom / 531; Can the current course be altered? / 532; Elements of an action plan / 534; Deep integration under the Martin Liberals / 539; Conclusion / 542; Notes / 544; References / 544

Contributors 547

Index 553