

Contents

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 4 (#104)

SUMMER 2011

- 9 Editorial Notes
The Voice of Nunavut
ANTOINE PASTRÉ
- 15 Building the Future of Nunavut, One Student at a Time
GREG POELZER
- 31 The New “Three R’s”
MURRAY ANGUS & MORLEY HANSON
- 53 Investing in Inuktitut is the Key to a Prosperous Nunavut
NAVARANA BEVERIDGE
- 67 Pattern Language
Should our vast spectrum of expressiveness be narrowed to literacy and numeracy?
DEREK RASMUSSEN

89 Teaching Inuktitut to Young Adults at Nunavut Sivuniksavut

MARTHA KYAK & STUDENTS

103 How and Why You Should Learn to Speak Inuktitut Today

A non-Inuit perspective

FABIEN PERNET

119 Some Thoughts about “Learning to be Smart” and Inuit Approaches to Judging Intelligence

PAMELA STERN

135 “From the Classroom to the Tundra”

The transfer of Inuit qaujimajatuqangit between elders and youth “out on the land”

FRÉDÉRIC LAUGRAND AND JARICH OOSTEN

153 David Serkoak talks about his path towards education

AN INTERVIEW BY ANTOINE PASTRÉ

161 Piqqusilirivvik

When is a school not a school?

HUGH LLOYD

177 Cold, Books and Philosophy

New ways of looking at old concepts

TOMMY AKULUKJUK

185 Connecting the Dots of This Issue